

Dear all,

Here is the latest news from the QoG Institute.

NEW ARTICLE

“Corruption, Bureaucratic Failure and Social Policy Priorities” by Carl Dahlström, Johannes Lindvall & Bo Rothstein (in Political Studies)

UPCOMING EVENTS

27th of November - Lunch seminar with Nils Resare, investigative journalist

Location: Stora Skansen, Sprängkullsgatan 19, University of Gothenburg

Time: 12:00-13:00

Nils Resare is a Swedish investigative journalist who has written extensively on issues related to Swedish aid and foreign policy. He has published books and worked for Dagens Nyheter, Affärsvärlden and Kalla Fakta, TV4.

The title of his presentation is: "Under the radar: Bribes in the footsteps of JAS"

6th-7th of December - The International Anti-Corruption Academy presents: Best of Bo Rothstein

Location: IACA Headquarters in Laxenburg, Austria (just south of Vienna)

During a two-day seminar, Professor Bo Rothstein will share his expertise about the persistent establishment of upright institutions. He will discuss his newest findings about the ramifications of “good government”, i.e. uncorrupted and reliable governmental institutions, on the combating of corruption. The seminar is designed for national and international anti-corruption practitioners from the private and public sector, media and civil society representatives, academics and students who grapple with the question “where do we go from here?” and “how do we engage all of the sectors necessary to impact a culture of corruption?”

10th of December - Samtal om kvalitet och värdegrund i offentlig verksamhet (ONLY IN SWEDISH)

Location: Juseks kansli, Nybrogatan 30, Stockholm (T Östermalmstorg)

Time: 16:00-17:00

Detta samtal är en del av Juseks forum för debatt om offentlig sektor. Deltagare: Carl Dahlström, docent i statsvetenskap vid Göteborgs universitet och QoG-institutet; Lärke Johns, Myndighetschef för Kompetensrådet för utveckling i staten; Lars Dahlberg, ledamot i landstingsstyrelsen Stockholms läns landsting (S) och Tomas Brytting, docent företagsekonomi IOA vid Ersta Sköndal högskola

Moderatorer: Edel Karlsson Håål, förhandlingschef Jusek och Magnus Hedberg, samhällspolitisk chef Jusek

Best regards,

The QoG Team