

QoG NEWS

Dear all,

This is the latest news from the QoG Institute.

NEW ARTICLES

Sundström, Aksel & Daniel Stockemer (2015) "Voter turnout in the European regions: The impact of corruption perceptions". Electoral Studies 40: 158-169.

Sundström, Aksel & Daniel Stockemer (2015) "What determines women's political representation at the local level? A fine-grained analysis of the European regions". International Journal of Comparative Sociology.

NEW WORKING PAPERS

Maria Gustavson: Does Good Auditing Generate Quality of Government? (2015:15)

NEW FORTHCOMING BOOK

We are very happy to announce that Cambridge University Press has accepted to publish a book manuscript by Professor Bo Rothstein and Phd Candidate Aiysha Varraich, with the preliminary title "Corruption and the Opposite of Corruption: A Map of the Conceptual Landscape".

STEIN ROKKAN PRIZE FOR COMPARATIVE SPECIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH

We are also happy to announce that Professor Christian Welzel, from Leuphana University Lueneburg (Germany), and permanent visiting scholar at the QoG institute, has been awarded the 2014 Stein Rokkan Prize for his book "Freedom Rising: Human Empowerment and the Quest for Emancipation" (2013, Cambridge University Press).

Best regards,
The QoG Team

