

QoG NEWS

Dear all,

Here is the latest news from the QoG Institute.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

"A losing gamble how mainstream parties facilitate anti-immigrant party success" by Carl Dahlström and Anders Sundell (in Electoral Studies)

NEW WORKING PAPERS

"Legalize it: An argument for formalizing petty corruption when state capacity is low" by Anders Sundell (2012:2)

"Food Security and Elite-Ruler Relations in Sub-Saharan Africa: Exploring the impact of democracy on public goods provision" by Michelle D'Arcy (2012:1)

UPDATED DATASET

The QoG Social Policy Dataset has recently been updated. Download the new dataset and the new codebook here.

UPCOMING EVENTS

12-15 April - 70th Annual MPSA Conference in Chicago. Several QoG researchers will attend and present papers and posters. The complete conference program is available here.

26 April, 18:30-19:30 – The QoG Institute arranges a panel discussion about corruption at Vetenskapsfestivalen in Gothenburg. Read more about it here. (Only in Swedish)

NEW FEATURES ON THE WEBSITE

We recently launched a new film presenting the institute and some of our researchers. Watch it here.

New reading list (on the data start page) with some articles and books which we think can be useful when working with time-series cross-sectional data.

Best regards,
The QoG Team