

Dear all,

This is the latest news from the QoG Institute.

NEW ARTICLES

Charron, Nicholas & Andreas Bågenholm (2015). Ideology, Party Systems and Corruption Voting in European Democracies. Electoral Studies.

Sjöstedt, Martin (2015). Resilience revisited: taking institutional theory seriously. Ecology and Society.

NEW WORKING PAPERS

Ketevan Bolkvadze: Efficiency without Autonomy? Bureaucratic Reforms in Georgia's Hybrid Regime (2015:17)

THE REGIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION 2015 AWARDS

We are happy to announce that Nicholas Charron, Lewis Dijkstra & Victor Lapuentes paper: "Regional Governance Matters: Quality of Government within European Union Member States" has received the Regional Studies Association 2015 Awards for Best Paper. Read more about the awards here.

6 MILLION TO NEW QOG RESEARCH

Sverker Jagers, Martin Sjöstedt & Aksel Sundström have been granted 6 million SEK from The Swedish Research Council for a four-year project on Corruption and Wildlife Management: The Logics of Collective Action in Transnationally Protected Reserves. Read the research abstract here.

OSLO SUMMER SCHOOL IN COMPARATIVE SOCIAL SCIENCE STUDIES 2016

On 25 - 29 July, 2016, Professor Lena Wängnerud will give a research course on “Elites, Institutions, and Good Societies: A Comparative Perspective”, at the Oslo Summer School in Comparative Social Science Studies. The course (10 ECTS) is open to doctoral students with an interest in comparative and methodological social science. More information about the course and application procedure is available here.

GREEN LIGHT FOR DISSERTATION

We are also happy to announce that Rasmus Broms has received green light for his dissertation “Taxation and Government Quality”.

Best regards,

The QoG Team

